International Programme in Humanities

Our Offer

At a glance

The Study Abroad - International Programme in Humanities (Italy) is open to all Bachelor's students, and is taught completely in English. During their time in Pisa, students will have the opportunity to attend either one or two terms (5 months long each), visit historical sites in Tuscany and other Italian regions, discover local culture and establish networks with students and people around the world.

ECTS: 30 credits for each term of 12 weeks

The Participants

Our programme is aimed at international Bachelor's students who are interested in studying Italian culture in an Italian setting. Students interested in enrolling must have a B1-European level in English.

Academic Programme

Our Study Abroad International Programme

offers a varied and intensive agenda of specialised studies in Archaeology, Art, History, Philosophy, Theatre, Cinema, Latin and other interesting topics. The programme is taught in English by internationally experienced lecturers. Each term includes 144 hours of class plus group work and site visits. Students who are interested also have the opportunity to take an Italian language course for 6 extra credits.

Programme Length

Students can choose from one of the following options:

- One single term: Fall 2017 or Spring 2018
- One year programme (two terms)

Venue and Facilities

All courses are held at the Study Centre Polo Guidotti at the University of Pisa, in modern and well-equipped rooms. Access to quiet study areas, computer facilities and free wireless Internet access is available to all students.

Accommodation and Support

Students will be given assistance in finding accommodation close to the university in family houses, hotels or B&Bs. Housing facilities are located in Pisa city centre, in quiet and safe areas. Various shopping facilities can be reached on foot. We guarantee professional assistance by the logistics coordinator and city tutors.

Fees

One term: € 1,500

Two terms: € 3,000

The fees listed above cover the costs of classes, the assistance of an academic tutor, a logistics coordinator, discounted rates at the dining halls, access to the University libraries and Italian language courses.

Not included in the fees are: transport, accommodation, additional individual sight-seeing trips and personal expenses .

Non-EU students

Please find out from the Italian authorities in your country if you need a visa.

About us

Officially established in 1343, the University of Pisa is one of the most ancient and prestigious universities in Europe.

Among its glories is the world-famous physicist Galileo Galilei, who was born and studied in Pisa and also became professor of Mathematics in 1589. Other alumni of the University include several Nobel Prize winners such as Giosuè Carducci (Literature), Enrico Fermi (Physics) and Carlo Rubbia (Physics), and Fields medalist Enrico Bombieri (Mathematics).

The University of Pisa currently ranks first in Italy in ARWU (Shanghai Jao Tong Academic Ranking of World Universities). Given its location in Italy, studying at the University of Pisa gives international students the chance to immerse themselves in Tuscan art and history.

Staying in Pisa

The city of Pisa is located in the middle of the beautiful Tuscan countryside, not far from the Mediterranean coast. With its sunny climate, history, art and cuisine, Pisa has more to offer than you can imagine.

Pisa is also one of the most significant University cities in Italy. Its cultural life revolves around museums, associations, cinemas and theatres.

Pisa's atmosphere is stimulating – relaxing and quiet due to the large use of bikes as one of the main modes of transport, but at the same time lively, with a centre that still preserves its traditions and old village charms.
