

Brugge

College of Europe
Collège d'Europe

Natolin

Scholarship Schemes of the College of Europe Natolin Campus

MA in European Interdisciplinary Studies

The Internal and External Dimensions of the European Union

EUROPEAN HISTORY AND CIVILIZATION SCHOLARSHIPS (ALL COUNTRIES)

The College of Europe at Natolin offers full-scholarships to top applicants who graduated in History and related disciplines. Students with these scholarships study for an advanced Master's degree in European Interdisciplinary Studies, with a specialization in European History and Civilization.

- Beneficiaries: Graduates in History and related disciplines who demonstrate a specific academic interest for European history or European civilization. Related disciplines include: International Relations, Political Science, Sociology, Area Studies, Geography, Philosophy, History of Art, Theology, Classics, Modern Languages and Literature.
- Eligibility: Candidates applying for this scholarship scheme must motivate this within their online application (max 600 words). They have to explain why they are interested in European history or European civilization.
- Conditions: Beneficiaries of this scholarship scheme will have to write their Master's thesis on a topic related to recent European history or to European civilization. In the second semester, beneficiaries will be automatically enrolled in the European History and Civilization major.
- Type of scholarship: Full.

These scholarships include tuition, study trips, meals and accommodation in a student residence for the duration of the study programme (10 months).

EUROPEAN NEIGHBOURHOOD POLICY SCHOLARSHIPS (EU CITIZENS)

Students with these scholarships focus their studies on the EU and its relations with its nearest neighbours, specializing in the European Neighbourhood Policy.

- Beneficiaries: Candidates from EU Member States who demonstrate a specific academic interest for the European Neighbourhood Policy.
- Eligibility: Candidates applying for this scholarship scheme must motivate this within their online application (max 600 words). They have to explain why they are interested in the European Neighbourhood Policy.
- Conditions: Beneficiaries of this scholarship scheme will have to write their Master's thesis on a topic related to the European Neighbourhood Policy.
- Type of scholarship: Full.

These scholarships include tuition, study trips, meals and accommodation in a student residence for the duration of the study programme (10 months).

EUROPEAN NEIGHBOURHOOD POLICY SCHOLARSHIPS (ENP CITIZENS)

Are you a successful graduate from Algeria, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Egypt, Georgia, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Libya, Moldova, Morocco, the Palestinian Authority, Syria, Tunisia or Ukraine? The College of Europe at Natolin offers top applicants full-scholarships for its European Interdisciplinary Studies programme.

- Beneficiaries: Citizens of countries of the European Neighbourhood Policy (ENP) - Algeria, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Egypt, Georgia, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Libya, Moldova, Morocco, the Palestinian Authority, Syria, Tunisia and Ukraine.
- Eligibility: Automatic, on the basis of citizenship.
- Conditions: None.
- Type of scholarship: Full.

These scholarships include tuition, study trips, meals and accommodation in a student residence for the duration of the study programme (10 months).

- Scholarships are awarded according to the final ranking of the candidates. Preselected candidates will be informed about the scholarship decisions as soon as possible after the selection interviews have taken place.

In alternative to our own scholarship schemes, students may be granted scholarships by their government or by public or private institutions. Approximately 70% of our students are granted scholarships. For more information about governmental scholarships and other scholarship schemes, please visit our website.